

Where are they now?

Emily Fons- Emily participated in shows when MYT originally claimed Bayview as its home. Emily is a nationally acclaimed opera singer touring the country and part of the Florentine Opera. She has even been nominated for a Grammy for her work on Jennifer Higdon's Cold Mountain. See more at www.emilyfons.com

Tristan Crist- Tristan was also part of MYT during its early stages 20 years ago. He is currently a professional magician in Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. He started his career at Circus World in Baraboo before moving to Lake Geneva. More info on his shows can be found at www.lakegenavamagic.com

Ian Walls – Ian was in 14 shows during his run with MYT. He is currently a theater major at the University of Vermont. He has been acting professionally at the Vermont Shakespeare Festival, St. Michael's Playhouse, and the UVM Royall Tyler Theater. This year he is studying Shakespearean Theater in London, England. Ian writes, "As a student my favorite part about working with MYT was the diversity of shows and styles it introduced me to. MYT not only gave me my first experience working with musical theatre, but with farce and Shakespeare as well."

For 29 years, the Milwaukee Youth Theatre has allowed young performers the free opportunity to be in or part of shows. To continue providing the best experience possible, we need your help to make our efforts go even further. Your support is crucial to our efforts to allow Milwaukee area youths the opportunity to continue providing a great theater experience. If you're able, we'd love if you could make a donation to achieve our mission and help our theater continue. Below are ways you can make a donation:
